Lunch Money Workshops are Back!

Library combines fantastic financial tips and a free lunch

The Georgetown County Library system is covering the county with financial fitness, offering free workshops at all four of its branches. The popular Lunch Money workshops last one hour, and feature entertaining experts, helpful handouts, even a delicious lunch from Kudzu Bakery.

“Come get tips on reducing your debt, saving for the future, and making your money work for you,” said Public Service Librarian Heather Pelham. “And after the workshop, if you’re looking for more details, we’ve got all the latest books on personal finance.”

The workshops are sponsored by a Smart investing@your library® grant provided through a partnership of the FINRA Investor Education Foundation and the American Library Association. The Smart Investing grant has made possible financial festivals, job fairs, workshops, even interviews with local residents who have faced financial obstacles and overcome them.

A few of the instructors are still working out their syllabus, so if a topic isn’t listed below, feel free to call Heather Pelham at the library (843) 545-3327 to learn more.
